

The Salisbury Centre Volunteer Role Title: Curator

Role Description

We are looking for a motivated volunteer to join our curating team. The role will focus on researching archives, collecting stories, creating installations. Duties will include research, creative idea sharing, creating, and installing installations. The role has been created for our 50th Anniversary celebrations.

Skills, Experience, Attributes & Commitment Required

Essential skills & attributes:

- Friendly and welcoming to people of all backgrounds and characteristics
- Willingness to learn new skills
- Reliability
- Interest in being part of a small community-led organisation
- Willingness to follow the Centre's Terms & Conditions, and to act with respect to the Salisbury Centre's vision, mission and values as well as community members, other centre users and the environment

Advantageous skills & attributes:

- Basic computer skills (optional and can be taught)
- Experience in archives and research
- Previous experience in curating
- Previous exhibition experience in any form
- Painting, mounting, photography experience

Commitment required

This project will begin with researching archives and collecting stories. We will collaboratively decide our meeting dates. Further into the project we will be looking at how to present our research and collaboratively creating installations. We aim to meet at least twice a month.

Inclusivity & Accessibility

We are striving towards a diverse and inclusive community environment therefore we gladly welcome volunteers from all races, gender identities, ethnic minorities, ages, classes, sexual orientations, and we welcome disabled volunteers.

Physical access

Most of the rooms are located on the ground floor and the Salisbury Centre has newly built access paths and disabled toilets. However, access to the garden currently still involves a few steps and there is an upstairs studio. The role does not require particular physical abilities and we are keen to work together on adapting any role to your needs and skills.

If you have access needs of any kind or ideas on how to make the project more accessible, please let us know of anything we can do to support you to volunteer in the Salisbury Centre.

What We Offer Volunteers

All volunteers will receive both a general Centre induction and a role-specific induction, and we will do our best to provide any training you need for your role. You will be supported by our Engagement Coordinator as well as other members of the staff team. You will have the opportunity gain experience in a community-based exhibition and curating and meet many people in our community.

You will be part of a wider team of volunteers from different backgrounds, with regular (optional) socials and gatherings in the lovely premises of the Salisbury Centre.
